FINISHING STRONG

Derek Redmond of Great Britain had trained for the Olympic 400-metre run for years. After the Seoul Olympics, he had five operations on both Achilles' tendons, but he bounced back. Now he was running well, and competing in the Olympic semifinals.

Halfway around the track, however, Derek's right hamstring gave way. He fell to the track, sprawled across the fifth lane. The television cameras focussed on defending Olympic champion Steve Lewis as he won the race and headed toward the tunnel.

Then, suddenly, Derek got to his feet and began hobbling around the track. He was determined to finish the race.

Derek's dad, Jim Redmond, sitting high in the stands at Olympic Stadium, saw his son collapse. The 49-year-old machine shop owner from Northampton, England, ran down the steps and onto the track. All he knew was his son needed help.

The crowd realized that Derek Redmond was running the race of his life. Around the stands, and around the world, fans stood and honoured him with cheers. At the final turn, Jim Redmond caught up to his son and put his arm around him. When Derek saw who it was, he leaned on his dad's right shoulder and sobbed. Security personnel attempted to intercede and escort Jim Redmond off the track, but their efforts were futile. Together, they crossed the finish line, father and son, arm in arm...

They finished strong!

Derek Redmond's Olympic story poignantly parallels the Scriptural truth outlined on Psalm 37, as the Living Bible proclaims:

The steps of good men are directed by the Lord. He delights in each step they take. If they fall it isn't fatal, for the Lord holds them with His hand.

Countless individuals stumble on the track of life! Men and women alike fall down in the whirlwind of a torrid pace! But they do not have to stay down! There is a Heavenly Father watching each step, who is willing to assist people to finish strong! He meets the fallen where they are and with open arms, helps them up, loves them, accepts them unconditionally and lends His strength to their journey.

For believers, setbacks pave the way for comebacks! I encourage each person to believe in the God who believes in you! Welcome His participation in your life! Regardless of how an individual's race began, or what happened along the way - what is remembered years later is how a person finished.

It is not how you start - it's how you finish! As a champion, finish strong!
