

Peeping tom looking in Commercial St. windows

A Commercial Street townhouse complex has been targeted by a peeping tom.

Over the past couple of weeks police have received four reports of a man looking into the bedroom windows of young female residents of the complex, which backs onto the ravine.

In one case, the window screen was ripped open — arousing a townhouse dweller from her sleep.

Police report the incidents all occurred between midnight and 3 a.m. They're advising residents in the area to make sure their doors and windows are locked at night and to leave exterior lighting on to discourage the prowler.

He's described as a white male between 20 and 25 years of age, about six feet tall and 180 pounds with brown hair.

Anyone with reports or information pertaining to the suspicious male is asked to call 878-5511, ext. 2415.

Apartments hit

Two Ontario Street apartment building units were broken into during the afternoon Monday.

Police are still looking into how the thieves found their way into the apartments, since there was no sign of forced entry.

Nothing was reported stolen from one of the units, but cash and jewelry was taken from the other.

The theft happened between 12:30 and 5:30 p.m.

Impaired driving

A 42-year-old Waterdown man faces impaired driving charges in connection with an incident in downtown Milton last Friday.

Police stopped a car being driven erratically at Ontario and Main streets at about 10:15 p.m.

The suspect is charged with impaired driving and driving with over the legal limit of alcohol in his blood.

He'll appear in Milton court October 16.

Drug charges laid

Police made two drug arrests last weekend in rural Milton.

The first incident occurred last Friday night on No. 3 Sideroad where police investigated a report of a suspicious male walking along the side of the road with a bike.

A small quantity of marijuana was discovered a short time later and a 41-year-old First Line man was charged with possession of a controlled substance.

He'll appear in Milton court October 16.

Saturday evening on Regional Road 25, police found a woman sitting in a parked car.

Further investigation resulted in the seizure of a small quantity of marijuana.

Also charged with possession of a controlled substance is a 21-year-old Milton woman.

She'll appear in Milton court November 20.

Vehicle damaged

A 1996 Pontiac Grand Am sustained $800 worth of damage to its rear window and trunk after someone vandalized the car with a large rock Sunday.

The incident occurred on Beaver Court at about 4:15 a.m.
