Thank You

Two small words that seem so insignificant compared to the outpouring of love and support I have received since the horrific train accident on Thursday September 28, 2000.

Family, friends, neighbours, co-workers (past & present), clergy, police, members of MacKinnon Funeral Home and especially the youth of Acton and surrounding areas (You Are Incredible!)

A special thanks to Melissa and Chelsie for their heartfelt thoughts at Travis's funeral, you both made the day bearable for me.

As my heart continues to ache for Travis a part of it is warmed by the knowledge that I live in such a caring and compassionate community.

- To the Everson Family and Dick Family
Hang in there, somehow if you can be strong I can too!

- Love you forever and ever Trav -
Thank you all
Travis's Mom - Kim

WILSON, Paddy - who passed away October 7, 1997.

It has been three years since you quickly passed away, And I miss you so, If I had thought that you would leave me so quickly without a goodbye, I would have remembered every word you said, As we walked in the sun and the rain together, I never could imagine that you could miss someone so much, If I only had one moment with you, My heart would be sustained.
Loving wife Barb & Family

HAMILTON, Robert (Bob) Suddenly, following a brief illness at Victoria Hospital in London, on Wednesday October 4, 2000, Bob Hamilton of Milton in his 76th year.
