

Barrier arms will soon be installed

By Christmas, barrier arms should be installed at the Fourth Line rail crossing in Acton where three E.C. Drury School students were killed September 28.

Halton MP Julian Reed said he has verbal confirmation from Transport Minister David Collenette that the installation of the arms will be fast-tracked.

He said it would normally take a year-and-a-half to get approval and have the arms in place.

"The indication is they'd be installed by Christmas," said Reed.

Halton Hills Mayor Marilyn Serjeantson was pleased by the news.

"If he can make it happen by Christmas I'd be so delighted. That would be wonderful," said Ms Serjeantson, who contacted Mr. Reed after the accident and asked for his help.

Mr. Reed said it will cost about $180,000 to install the arms at the crossing. The federal government will pick up 80 per cent of the bill, with the rest being split between the railway and municipality.

Man charged following crash

A 1992 Dodge Sprint stolen from Mississauga was involved in a near head-on collision in rural Milton Tuesday afternoon.

The stolen vehicle was traveling north of Trafalgar Road at a high rate of speed and passing people at about 3:20 p.m. when it struck a pick-up truck going in the same direction. The impact caused the truck to careen into oncoming traffic, nearly causing a head-on collision.

The stolen vehicle landed in the east ditch of Trafalgar Road. The driver got out of the vehicle and briefly spoke to people at the scene, said Det. Sgt. Jackie Gordon of Halton Regional Police. The man then walked away, disappearing into a field.

Det. Sgt. Gordon said the man was followed to a home on Trafalgar Road by citizens who then called the police.

The police arrived and arrested a man they found in the home.

A 26-year-old man of no fixed address was charged with theft over $5,000, possession of stolen property, dangerous driving, failure to remain, break and enter and impaired driving and driving with over the legal limit of alcohol in his blood.

He was held for bail.
