

Candidates list is complete for the municipal election

The list is complete — now it's up to you Milton.

All the names are in for the November 13 municipal election. And while things started out a little slow, a swell of challengers came forward over the past two weeks — offering races for all but two posts.

Clarification

An article in Tuesday's Champion contained information that is now out-dated.

As of press time Monday, Patty Taft was still entered as a mayoral candidate in the upcoming municipal election — a fact which was mentioned in a story regarding fellow mayoral challenger Vito Agozzino.

However, Ms Taft withdrew her name from the race Monday afternoon — beyond our Tuesday deadline.

The Champion regrets any confusion pertaining to this matter plus any inconvenience or embarrassment it may have caused.
