" A mid size international marketing organization located near the Toronto airport requires full time seasonal employees to work in classifying and evaluating agricultural and wild natural resource products.

The successful candidate will have a good eye for colour and the ability to discern texture and quality through hands on inspection. Additional warehousing duties may be assigned to even out work flow.

The positions are suitable for individuals who would be available for employment from mid-November to mid-April. The job is equally suited to men and women.

The successful applicants will initially receive a paid one week classroom instruction period followed by hands on product classification training. Individuals with strong skills and a demonstrated desire to pursue a career within the industry will be considered for permanent positions."
