THE CANADIAN CHAMPION

Thanks for support, says fashion show organizer

Dear Editor;

I'm writing to thank the Champion for its comprehensive coverage of the 20th Annual Green Ginger Dinner Fashion Show. The Fashion Show was a tremendous success, and Linda Lundstrom was able to join us. She absolutely loved it, from the food to the models to the fabulous fireman.

I'd like to take the opportunity to thank again the following contributors: Maple Lodge Farms, Betty Inglis, Li Konkle of Loblaw's, the Angellucci family of Halton Hills Place, Donna Coulter, Martin, Wanda, Melanie and Shirley at the Salon Group, for the fabulous hair, Christine, Corri and Franca (nine months pregnant!) at Body and Sole, for the lovely makeup, Antero Gomes at Milton Graphics, Bobby, Anita and the Power family, who sold raffle tickets, Marnie Palmer and Anita McCaw, my many wonderful models, dressers, and backstage crew. And, finally to Linda Lundstrom Inc. and Linda herself for samples and support. I'd also like to thank the many businesses and individuals who provided raffle and door prizes. They gave people a strong incentive to buy tickets. I want to encourage people to patronize these businesses — this endeavour is all about us supporting each other! We have raised over $92,000 to date for Dr. Goss's Breast Cancer Research Fund. I couldn't have asked for a better team of people to join me in my 20th and final fashion show. God bless and good health.

Teen questions school board's policy in light of recent crash claiming three E.C. students

So now I turn it over to you, because as you were quoted in the Milton Champion, "Supporting these students is our first priority".

You are doing a good job at E.C. What happened to the other schools? I know that about 90 per cent of their friends went to E.C., but what about the other 10 per cent? Don't we deserve some support from our school? We do!

When I asked our school for a moment of silence I was under the impression we would get one with no questions asked. Apparently many teachers felt the same way when I asked them if our school would allow it.

I just think we owe it to all the families and friends to give a minute of our time to Rory, Mark and Travis. Don't they deserve it?
