Where is it?

Local athletes shone in 2000

Milton's biggest upset victory of the year was staged at Mohawk Racetrack when Bettors Delight — the prized colt of Hornby native John Grant — stunned heavily favoured Real Desire in the two-year-old pace at the 16th annual Breeders Crown.

Good teams that fell short

- The Sam Sherratt boys basketball team's regional title bid fell one game short, as the local hoopsters were downed in the finals by Burlington's Rolling Meadows. The Shamrocks finished the year with a record of 11-2.
- Milton's A major bantams took their Tri County final series to the limit, but didn't have any scoring punch left once they got there and were stoned by Guelph 2-0. The game six loss followed a 6-0 shutout win just two nights earlier.

• Milton's tykes got close enough to see the promised land, but couldn't quite complete the journey to it — losing the Tri County finals to Georgetown. The local rink rats staved off elimination three straight times before the game six defeat.

• E.C. Drury's girls softball squad continued in their role as bridesmaids, losing in the regional finals to Georgetown — who've become an annual stumbling block to the local ladies securing regional gold.

• Milton's AA juveniles got so close to championship victory they could almost taste it, but in the end they were left hungry for the gold during championship tournament play in Leamington — losing to New Hamburg 1-0 in the finals.
