Kinderym

Children aged 3-and-a-half to 6 years old have fun learning the basics of gymnastics in the Milton Springers' Kinderym program. At left, Sarah Bone, 4, demonstrates her sense of balance on the balance beam while carrying a bean bag. And, inset, she gets a steady hand from instructor Alexis Stoffels as another young gymnast awaits her turn. Meanwhile, (below centre) Victoria Willett gets a little help going upside down from Ms Stoffels. And anxiously waiting for their turn on the floor (below right) are Alexandra Redden (left) and Isabella Maugeri. At bottom, practicing his balance and having some fun is Jason Cullen, 3. The Kinderym participants will be part of the Gymstrada Show Sunday at E.C. Drury High School.
