Corporate services official named

Halton Region has named Burlington resident Jane MacCaskill as its new corporate services commissioner.

Ms MacCaskill has been a manager with the Region's corporate services department for 12 years. Since 1991, she's been director of technology services.

Previously, she worked as internal auditor and as a manager in the Region's finance department. She also worked for an accounting company in technology consulting and as audit supervisor.

"Her strong background in finance, technology and management will provide the Region with the strong leadership it needs," said Halton Region's Chief Administrative Officer Brent Marshall.
