Since 1943, March has been declared Red Cross Month in both Canada and the United States.

"The Red Cross is an international humanitarian organization," said

Brent Page, community services co-ordinator for Milton's Red Cross branch. "The people we serve are the ones most vulnerable to suffering."

One of the key services provided by the Red Cross is the disaster relief service, he said.

The disaster service helps survivors of disasters by providing food, shelter, medicine and clothing.

"The Red Cross was there helping with earthquake victims in India, Seattle (Washington) and El Salvador," he said. "Our tag is, Red Cross anywhere, anytime. Basically the last place you ever want to be is where the Red Cross • see RED CROSS on page 10
