Live and Work in Beautiful Bermuda Montessori Governess Position Available

A family in Bermuda is seeking a Montessori primary guide or an experienced Montessori assistant as a governess for their 3-year-old boy and 8-month-old girl. A regular schedule is provided weekly and flexibility is needed to meet the family's needs and occasional travel plans.

The governess will work directly with the family to incorporate the Montessori philosophy into the home and maintain a benevolent Montessori home environment. This position also includes opportunities to work with a Montessori primary guide in a classroom on the family's estate and direct a classroom of 5-8 children in her absence.

This is an opportunity to live and work in beautiful Bermuda. The governess will be provided with an apartment near the estate. The family pays rent, utilities and health insurance. A competitive wage is paid monthly and a per diem while travelling.

This position is available immediately, however candidates who cannot start until after the school year ends in June 2001 will be considered.

If this unique opportunity to work with Montessori principles in a home environment interests you, please forward your resume to: Email leaw@waterint.com or Fax: 416-956-4715.
