No shortage of excitement during house league Day of Champions

by MURRAY TOWNSEND
Special to The Champion

There was no shortage of action at Saturday's House League Championship. The following is a rundown of competition at each age level.

Tyke Championship

Mark Nordstrom had the hat-trick and Matt Moore had an awesome game in net. Knuckles Sports Shop defeated Bruce Good Travel 3-1. Steve Molkoski won the most improved award on the season, while Mic Schroeder was the most sportsmanlike player.

Paul Martens scored the lone goal for Bruce Hood Travel, which held the lead until the second period. Tyler Curtis won the team's most improved player, with the most sportsmanlike award going to Jeff Cephred.

Tyke Consolation Finals

Aaron Beahoo scored twice to lead Hunt Chrysler Jeep to a 5-1 victory over the Little Firemen. Behoo, was also named the team's most improved player, was joined on the scoresheet by Ryan Klutt, Curtis Lin, and Brandon Robidoux. Mark Ewan earned the victory in net. David Tommonds won the team award for most sportsmanlike.

Haylee Drew was the lone goal scorer for the Little Firemen. Drew also won the most sportsmanlike award. Kevin Entmac won for the most improved.

Minor Novice Championship

You won't find many games as odd as this one, championship or otherwise. Mac Zuest scored two goals for Good Life Fitness Red on the first shift of the game in a 10-second span and that was it for the scoring.

They defeated Good Life Blue 2-0 to take the championship. Brandon Grant earned the shutout.

Although they had no goals, MacKenzie Gervais, Jamie Duff and Tyler Garrard were standouts for Blue team, as was goaltender, Mark Prusha.

Minor Novice Consolation Finals

An overtime goal by Erik O'Kane gave Good Life Fitness Green a 3-2 decision over Good Life Fitness Black. It was his second goal of the game, both assisted by Alex Maracle. Andrew Browne had the other marker.

Andrew Bergman and Matthew Campbell each had a goal and an assist for the Black team, with Andrew Boivin earning two helpers.

Novice Championship

Hunt Chrysler Jeep came a long way from the start of the season when they were losing by enormous scores.
