Driver of stolen car steals gas

Halton Regional Police in Milton are investigating a theft drive-off where a suspect pulled up to the pumps on March 3 at approximately 10:44 p.m. at the Pioneer Gas Bar on Trafalgar Road.

The suspect put gas in the vehicle, returned to the passenger side, climbed in and drove away. He was last seen driving off in a 1998 Jeep Cherokee, blue in colour. The vehicle license plate was checked by police and it was found to have been stolen from the Waterloo area.

The suspect is described as a white male, 30 years of age with dark hair. If you know of anyone who has stolen a vehicle, Crime Stoppers wants to hear from you.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other case, you may be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000. You need not give your name and your information can be taken with complete anonymity.

Crime Stoppers does not subscribe to call display.

Call 1-800-222-TIPS or 825-TIPS.

Suspect charged with making threats

A 19-year-old Burlington man has been charged with uttering death threats and possession of a dangerous weapon following an incident in downtown Milton Saturday.

Police report that a man made threatening phone calls to a local resident and was found walking toward his home with a baseball bat at about 4 a.m.

Support centre targeted

Community Living North Halton was a popular target late last week.

The Ontario Street facility was broken into three times in as many nights — although nothing was removed from the premises.

Police Blotter

Each time, a basement window was smashed in to gain access.

Damage was estimated at about $250.

Wood pallets stolen

More than 200 wood pallets were stolen from Joe's Auto Sales on Main Street sometime last weekend.

Unknown culprits forced open a locked gate before making off with the pallets, which had a total value of $3,500.

Police are investigating.

Cash taken from Midas

A man believed to be in his early twenties made off with approximately $320 from a cash register left unattended momentarily at Midas Muffler on Steeles Avenue Saturday afternoon.

The suspect was described as a white male about six feet tall with a muscular build.

The incident occurred at about 2:50 p.m. Police are investigating.
