

Acton woman dies in crash

Two-car crash north of No. 15 Sideroad claims life of woman

A two-car crash just north of Milton Saturday evening left an Acton woman dead and two men in hospital.

Esther Sutton, 46, was pronounced dead at the scene of the 6:30 p.m. accident on Regional Road 25, just north of No. 15 Sideroad.

Halton Regional Police said a Chevrolet Cavalier travelling north on Regional Road 25 drove over the centre line and hit a southbound Buick LeSabre head on.

The vehicles came to a rest in the southbound lane on the west side of the road.

Ms Sutton was a passenger in the Buick LaSabre. The driver of the Buick, Ronald Sutton, 52, of Acton was transported to Milton District Hospital and later transferred to St. Michael's Hospital in Toronto with serious but non-life threatening injuries.

The driver of the Chevrolet Cavalier, a 31-year-old Rockwood resident, was transported to Milton District Hospital and later transferred to Sunnybrook Health Centre in Toronto with serious injuries.

The accident is under investigation by Halton police's public safety unit.

Champion wins award from OCNA

The Canadian Champion has won a third-place award in the 2000 Better Newspapers Competition hosted by the Ontario Community Newspapers Association (OCNA).

The Champion placed third out of 18 newspapers in its circulation category for General Excellence.

Nunavut's News/North placed first and the Wallaceburg Courier-Press placed second.

"The Canadian Champion has a nice look and strong writing, along with good photos," commented judge Susan Lundy of the Gulf Islands Driftwood in British Columbia.

The award was presented Saturday night during the OCNA convention at the Marriott Hotel on the Toronto airport strip.
