65 Lost, Strayed

65 Lost, Strayed

In memory of my mother, Barrie-June Saliba who died April 21, 2000. A year has gone by since I lost a part of my soul. No one can truly know the emptiness that I feel inside. Oh Mom how I wish I had the chance to say Goodbye. I believe your last days in Florida were spent in a Happy place, But oh what I would have given just to see your face, To hear your voice and your funny little laugh, to give you a hug and to feel it back. Reality is that you will not return, and I'm left with memories, Though they are not the same, for I am confused, angry and in a lot of pain. It is hard to understand why God didn't let us say goodbye, The only solace that I have is that you didn't suffer over a long period of time. You are now in a place of beauty and peace. Say hello to Daddy for me too, I know that he will take good care of you. You are together again which is comforting to know, and never ever forget that my love for both of you will never go. I love you Mom and miss you so very much.
Love Margaret

April 21, 2000
We miss you Mom, Grandma Barrie June Saliba
We cannot believe the time that has past, Since the day we saw you last We think of you hourly and daily - Our hearts felt like they were broken. At times it still seems That this was a terrible dream But the aching is real And it is so scary how we feel! In our hearts you remain near forever and each and every day of the year.
Love Carol, Brent, Nicole, Natalie, Alana

In memory of a loving Grandma I love you, a bushel and a peck A bushel and a peck I do. I love you a hug around the neck A hug around the neck I do.
I miss you grandma
