Schools, cemetery hit in spree of vandalism

One school trashed; Evergreen Cemetery headstones toppled

The weather heated up considerably over the weekend, and so too did Milton's vandalism problem.

In one of the worst local sprees in recent memory, three schools and Evergreen Cemetery were targeted.

A total of 27 headstones were turned over at the Ontario Street cemetery — many of them cracked — Sunday morning.

Meanwhile, Halton Regional Police have arrested a local young man in connection with Martin Street School being trashed overnight Friday.

Kitchen appliances were destroyed, as were drinking fountains, windows and doors. Damage was estimated at $20,000 to $30,000.

A suspect was found leaving the school with a computer at about 4:57 a.m. Saturday.

sion of stolen property and mischief over $5,000. He'll appear in Ontario Court (provincial division) in Milton May 24.

Police are now trying to establish whether or not there were others involved in the Martin Street break-in — as well as who's responsible for similar incidents at E.C. Drury High School and Sam Sherratt School overnight Saturday.

Several windows were smashed at both schools. Two youths were seen outside E.C. Drury around the time of the break-in and both are described as being 15 to 17 years of age with dark hair.

"We will be vigilant in ascertaining who's responsible for this," said Det. Sgt. Jackie Gordon of Halton police.

Anyone with information about these activities is asked to call detectives at 878-5511, ext. 2415.
