Inc. have come on board. We also need to negotiate a new long-term Memorandum of Agreement with the Province of Ontario.

"We have a very capable board and I'm pleased to have been elected president."

Elected vice-president was David Nattress.

He brings a wide range of business expertise to the board including 23 years with Monsanto in senior management positions such as vice-president of the agriculture division and vice-president of the chemical division.

Mr. Nattress is currently an independent consultant and real estate broker specializing in investment properties and the sale of farms.

Carolyn McDonell was elected secretary-treasurer, bringing communication and marketing experience to the board. Ms McDonell is a marketing consultant and previously served as executive manager of the Beef Information Centre.

Clean-up volunteers needed

Volunteers are needed for Rural Road Clean Up Day in Nassagaweya May 5.

The clean-up project is organized by the Nassagaweya Community Consultation Committee.

The clean up should take approximately three hours to complete.

Road side litter is picked up, not household garbage.

To volunteer for the area around Campbellville, Moffat and Brookville, call Jean Woods at (905) 854-2107.

Can you help?

The North Halton Literacy Guild urgently needs volunteers to help adults with their reading, spelling, writing, math and basic computer skills.

Teaching experience isn't a necessity. A commitment of three hours per week is required.

For more information, call 873-2200.
