Everyone needs a hero.

Our kids depend on people like you. People who want to make a difference in children's lives. At The Hospital for Sick Children, we're more than world leaders in paediatric academic health sciences. We advocate on behalf of children and for the evolution of children's health care. Committed to providing the very best in family-centred, compassionate care, we're continually surpassing our international reputation for excellence. Our world-class teaching, research and health care centre is affiliated with the University of Toronto and offers a supportive and nurturing environment. Consider a career with The Hospital for Sick Children and show our kids that heroes don't just live in comic books.
