Jack Grunsky

Over the past 15 years, Jack has won the hearts of thousands of fans across Canada, the USA and abroad. This award-winning recording artist and performer has become one of Canada's most respected exponents of children's music. With his diverse repertoire of memorable songs and unique instruments, Jack engages his audiences as he embarks on a global musical journey, drawing on personal experiences and influences from many different cultures, and integrating a variety of themes relevant to children of today. Jack is seen regularly on GLOBAL KID'S TV, and he has been a featured guest on MR. DRESS-UP, CBC-TV SUNDAY ON THE ARTS, and CFTO TV - CANADA AM. You can see Jack Grunsky on stage at 12:00 noon.

DREAM

The beautiful voices of Dream will grace the stage at 11:00. The five teen girls from Oakville have been performing since 1997 with their sweet sound and fresh young look to the delight of children and adults. Melissa Griffin, Kristen Arthurs, Nicole Law, Jacqueline Matthews and Erin Donati make up Dream who have already performed at the Air Canada Centre.

Al Grose Magic

Get ready to be amazed as Al Grose magic returns to Police Day. Al will take the stage at 11:30 a.m. to dazzle the audience with his creative abilities to make things disappear. He has performed many of his mysteries thousands of times, but his fresh performing style creates the illusion that the magic is happening for the very first time. He will also be walking around during the event doing pocket magic the entire days.

Brenda Byers

If you want to hear a good story then you won't want to miss Brenda Byers. Brenda will keep the young and the young at heart dreaming as she animates folktales from around the world. She has been storytelling for 6 years at festivals, corporate events, churches and libraries. Brenda Byers is best known in the Burlington area for her children storytelling day camps.
