All that jazz

Flesch to put on show at Charley's May 25

To quote one of her favourite musicians, Jennalynn Flesch is now "in the big league."

The 25-year-old rural rocker recently inked an 'artist in development deal' with EMI Records — which will include the release of a single, video and full length album later this year.

She'll write new songs alongside seasoned musicians like Tom Cochrane, Anthony Van deBurg, Bruce Guthro and Jeff Martin from the Tea Party.

"I'm really excited and nervous at the same time," said Ms Flesch. "Now I've got something to prove because EMI is so small recording label."

EMI's interest in the local musician was peaked last summer at the Ride For Sight concert in Wasaga Beach.

Flesch — who's recorded a couple of independent albums over the past few years and has toured through parts of Canada, the United States and Australia — will return for this year's Ride For Sight event, but first will entertain Miltonians May 25 at Charley Fitzwhiskey's.

Her show will begin at about 9 p.m.
