Local artist is featured at Glen Williams show

The works of Milton artist Maureen Casteller are featured at the Williams Mill Gallery Spring Show.

The show, entitled 'Down to Earth', started Wednesday and will continue until June 10 at the Williams Mill, 515 Main St., in Glen Williams.

Artists Carol-Ann Michaelson and Gail Mowat are also featured.

Ms Casteller's environmental concerns have led to create a new series of collages that pertain to the fragility of the earth and the balance of nature that reflect her concerns for the eroding escarpment and the importance of preserving a balance in nature.

She portrays the earth as women blankets that protect and entwine in layers of textural patterns.

Her parents encouraged her at a young age to develop her artistic talents with gifts of paints, canvases and many sketching trips around Lake Ontario. Ms Casteller further developed her talents by enrolling in a visual arts program at Loyalist College in Belleville, majoring in graphic design and film making.

The gallery is open Wednesday to Sunday from noon to 5 p.m.

The public is invited to meet the artists May 26 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the gallery. Refreshments will be served.
