Help groups available

Peer support groups are offered by Sexual Assault and Violence Intervention Services of Halton for survivors of sexual assault and partners and friends of survivors of sexual assault.

Groups are also available for women who are lesbian, bisexual or transgendered.

The confidential groups provide a safe, supportive and encouraging environment for people 18 years of age or older to talk about the issues they face. The free groups are run by trained facilitators from a woman-centred, empowerment perspective.

The next sessions begin in the fall. For more information, call (905) 825-3622.
