The Dominion has been serving the insurance needs of Canadians for more than 100 years. Founded in 1887 with Sir John A. Macdonald as our first president, we have built a rich tradition of experience and industry know-how. Today, we are one of the largest property and casualty insurance companies in the country with nearly 900 employees and offices from coast to coast.

You must have the ability to travel independently throughout the field area on a daily basis.
