Helpful Lessons Learned on Life's Highway

Fellow Miltonian and a dear friend, Sherry Robinson, is no stranger to challenge and adversity. Her daily struggle to survive the rigours of a debilitating disease could crush the spirits of many hearty individuals.

But Sherry is no quitter! She constantly demonstrates extraordinary mettle in tough times through mining the vast, untapped resources of faith found deep within. The strength of her faith is evidenced by her determination and resolve in times of crisis. Her positive outlook compels her to encourage others in spite of her pain. She sent me these inspirational thoughts from Andy Rooney to encourage me. Enjoy.. and please pray for a renewal of Sherry's health and vitality!

I've learned...

- That the best classroom in the world is at the feet of an elderly person.
- That when you're in love, it shows!
- That having just one person say to me, "You've made my day!" makes my day.
- That being kind is more important than being right.

- That I should never say no to a gift from a child.
- That I can always pray for someone even when I don't have the strength to help in any other way.
- That sometimes all a person needs is a hand to hold and a heart to understand.
- That simple walks with my father around the block on summer nights when I was a child did wonders for me as an adult.
- That life is like a roll of toilet paper - the closer it gets to the end, the faster it goes.
- That we should be glad God doesn't give us everything we ask for.
- That money doesn't buy class.
- That it is the small daily happenings that make life so spectacular.
- That under a person's hard shell is someone who wants to be appreciated and loved.
- That the Lord didn't do it all in one day. What makes me think I can?
- That to ignore the facts does not change the facts.
- That when I plan to get even with

- someone, I am only allowing that person to continue to hurt me.
- That love, not time, heals all wounds.
- That the easiest way for me to grow as a person is to surround myself with people smarter than I am.
- That everyone you meet deserves to be greeted with a smile.
- That life is tough, but I'm tougher.
- That opportunities are never lost - someone else always gets the ones that I have missed.
- That when I harbor bitterness, happiness docks elsewhere.
- That I should keep my words soft and tender, because tomorrow I may have to eat them.
- That a smile is an inexpensive way to improve your looks.
- That I can't choose how I feel, but I can choose what to do about how I feel!
- That everyone wants to live on top of the mountain, but all the happiness and growth occurs while you're climbing it.
- That it's best to give advice in only two circumstances; when it is - requested and when it is a life threatening situation.

 - That the less time I have to work with, the more things I get done.
- Show your friends how much you care. They are rare jewels that can help you smile and encourage you to succeed. Invite a friend to join you at a local church this week and discover inner strength that true faith can unleash. Service times and locations are published in the Religious Directory below!
