

COMMUNITIES IN BLOOM

Patio Contest

Communities in Bloom

The Town of Milton has entered this year's Communities In Bloom at the provincial level. Milton will compete with like size communities (population 20,001 to 50,000) including its neighbour to the north, the Town of Halton Hills, with judging to take place August 15 to 17, 2001.

Communities In Bloom is a Canada organization dedicated to encouraging civic pride, environmental responsibility and beautification through community participation and the challenge of competition. Judging emphasis for beautification projects is placed on the variety and use of trees, shrubs, flowers and the appearance and upkeep of private and public gardens.

The winning Home Garden Patio will receive a $100 gift certificate from
