

Vandal damages car with big piece of wood

A 1997 Honda Prelude was damaged on Wilson Drive Saturday between 1:25 and 1:40 a.m.

A six-foot piece of wood was used to smash the front centre of the car, denting the hood and cracking the windshield.

Damage is estimated at $1,000. No arrests have been made.

Jewelry stolen

A Fourth Line residence was broken into last Friday between 9 and 11:30 a.m.

The front door was kicked in and a wooden jewelry box containing a diamond ring and costume jewelry was stolen.

The loss is estimated at $1,000. No suspects have been arrested.

Indecent act

A 30-year-old Guelph Line man was charged with committing an indecent act after he was allegedly seen masturbating in a Charles Street backyard while observing an older woman and her nine-year-old daughter swim June 30.

Police Blotter

The suspect will appear in Ontario Court (provincial division) August 9.

Speeding charge

A Burlington man was charged with speeding last Friday after an officer clocked a car travelling at 147 km/h in an 80 km/h zone.

The man was travelling on Guelph Line, south of No. 30 Sideroad.

Alcohol wasn't a factor.

The man will appear in Ontario Court (provincial division) August 20.

Tool box turned in

A black De Walt tool box was turned into the Milton police station July 19.

A motorist noticed the tool box on the ground near Derry and Tremaine roads.

Various power tools and blades were found inside the box, which was valued at $700.

School windows damaged

Two windows were cracked on the north side of Sam Sherratt School July 18 at 5 a.m.

Damage is estimated at $500.

No suspects have been arrested.

Sgt. Hay is police's new public affairs officer

The Halton Regional Police Service has a new public affairs officer.

Sgt. Val Hay, a 15-year veteran of policing in Halton, has taken the helm from Sgt. Larry Brassard, who left the police service after a career that spanned two decades.

Sgt. Hay began her career in 1986 with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. She worked in Toronto for three years before joining Halton Regional Police in 1989.

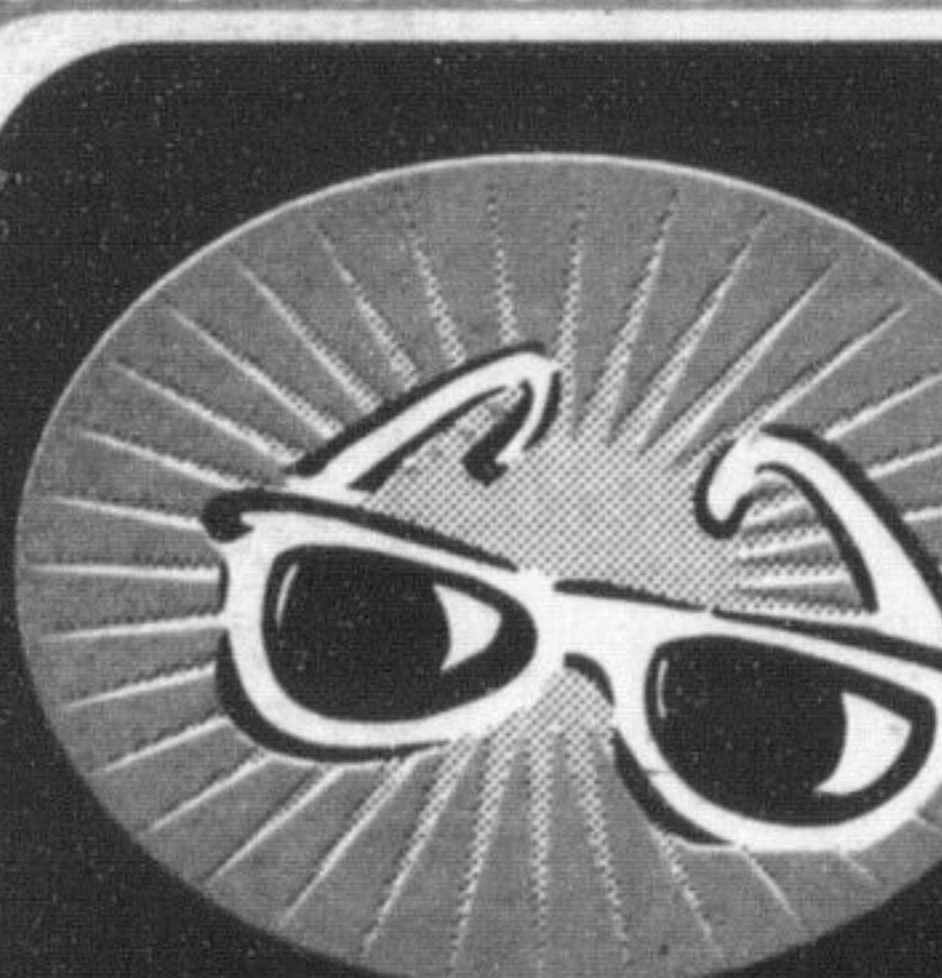

An experienced criminal investigator, Sgt. Hay has worked in Halton Hills,

Milton and Burlington as a patrol officer as well as a member of the service's surveillance unit.

Sgt. Hay also served as an instructor at the Ontario Police College in Alymer, Ont. for two years.

Sgt. Brassard left the position to become deputy chief of the Halton Hills Fire Department.

He had been a full-time fire prevention officer for the department before joining the police service.
