Student employment centre will close Friday

Centre helped hundreds find jobs this summer

The Milton Human Resource Centre of Canada for Students (HRCC-S) will close its doors for the summer Friday.

This summer, the centre placed hundreds of students with jobs in the area. "The summer went very well," said Janath Corso, summer employment officer. "We helped a large number of students with their job searches but we also counselled them on things like resumé and cover letter writing and interview techniques, as well as employment standards and wage rates."

The HRCC-S also assisted local employers in finding employees who were qualified, enthusiastic and ready to work.

In addition, the local centre played host to a number of events designed to make the connection between employers and students and to promote the 'hire a student' message.

Looking forward to next summer

The Milton HRCC-S is looking forward to challenge the community once again next summer to support student employment.

The Human Resource Centres of Canada for Students are part of the Government of Canada's Youth Employment Strategy.

Church hosts golf tournament

The New Life Church's seventh annual Bus Ministry Golf Classic will be held at Acton Golf Club August 25.

Proceeds generated from ticket sales will go toward the purchase of a new bus for the church's transportation ministry.

Young children and adults benefit from access to special events such as gym nights, sporting events, campouts, retreats and conferences.

Through inspection, the Third Line church's 72-passenger bus is winding up its tenure of service and needs to be replaced.

Last year, more than $13,000 was raised and this year's goal is $20,000.

The tournament costs $125 per player.
