Zellers Important Safety Hazard Recall Notice

Zellers has learned of a potential safety hazard with a SPORTEK® brand infant and girls' sandal available in pink/white and purple/white.

The plastic inserts stitched over the embroidery can come loose from the sandal and a child could then put a loose insert in his or her mouth and accidentally choke.

The item was sold in infant and misses sizes at Zellers stores across Canada beginning March 2000, for $14.99 (or less when on sale).

If you have these sandals, please stop using them immediately. You can return them to any Zellers store in Canada for a full refund.
