Executive Director's Message

Calling all past Chamber Presidents!!!

We need you to help us celebrate our 113th Anniversary on October 23, 2001. We have a comprehensive list of Presidents as far back as 1974, but need to know who was a chamber president earlier than 1974. If you can help us find all our former presidents call me at 905-878-0581 as soon as possible.

Jim Dills did some research for us and discovered that the Chamber was established in October 1888 and thus began the history of community work by the business leaders of Milton. This endeavour continues to this very day and includes such community events as the Milton Farmers' Market, the Community Awards Gala, and Showcase Milton. Our ever-growing business events, knit together "business with pleasure" such as the Business After Hours, popular Mayor's Breakfast, Volunteer Appreciation, and the annual Golf Tournament.

The past Presidents were instrumental in shaping the present Chamber of Commerce and its current role in our community development. We would be honoured by your presence at "our" anniversary party.

The Downtown Business Improvement Area is hosting a General Meeting on September 12, 2001 at 251 Main Street between 6:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. Guest speakers will include Superintendent Mike Kingston, Halton Regional Police Service, and Jennifer Reynolds, Director of Community Services, Town of Milton. They will be speaking about community policing issues and the Central Business District Streetscape Study, respectively. Join us if you are a downtown business or interested in knowing more about the changes taking place in our downtown core. For more information call 905-878-0581.
