

Church celebrates history

Lowville United Church will celebrate its history through the 'Great Revival of 1846' event Sunday.

Displays will include a plant that came over in the 1850s on a boat from England (still in its original plant container), documents from the 1800s including photos and wills, and a model of the Village of Lowville from the 1850s. A 1846 letter will be read from Joseph Featherstone.

Doors open at 4:30 p.m., followed by an 'old-fashioned' church supper at 5:30 p.m.

Don't look down

Cadet Colin Kelly of the Royal Canadian Army Cadet Corps in Milton pauses during descent of the 10-metre abseil tower at the Connaught Army cadet National Summer Training Centre in Ottawa. Cadet Kelly attended the three-week Basic Marksman course in July and August.
