

Student reports suspicious man

A W.I. Dick Middle School student called Halton police last Friday to report a suspicious person.

The girl said she was approached by a man in a truck between 8 and 8:30 a.m., who offered her a ride. When she refused, the man said he would see her after school.

He's described as a black male, 30, clean shaven with a chubby face. He was wearing a burgundy jacket and a black tuque and spoke with a Jamaican accent. He was seen driving a two-door silver Dodge pick-up truck.

Anyone with information is asked to call police at (905) 878-5511.
