Hurricane atoms win tournament

Halton's AAA major atoms persevered through a hectic weekend and were rewarded for their extra efforts with championship gold in Peterborough.

The Hurricanes delivered six straight victories to win the Kawartha Challenge. They clinched the title in dramatic fashion — eclipsing the hosts 4-3.

Providing the heroics with a go-ahead goal inside the final four minutes was Chris Ackroyd. Ryan Mitchell and Kirk Rankin assisted on play.

Rep Hockey

Halton was much more dominant through the lion's share of the tournament, including the semifinals when they toppled Oakville 5-2. This mirrored a first-round playoff decision over the Kitchener Jr. Rangers.

The 'Canes have been equally prosperous through the initial stages of regular season play with a couple of hard-fought wins. A 3-0 season-opening whitewash of Guelph was highlighted by a gritty overall effort and flawless cage work by Ryan Williams.

From there the local lads trimmed Oakville 3-2. Brendan Gingras tallied twice while chipping in the single was Ackroyd.

Winning streak over

Milton's AA midgets were short-staffed heading into battle and shorthanded for much of their evening clash with Orangeville Monday.

The combination proved costly, as the Karmax Winterhawks were nipped 3-2. The home-ice setback brought their early-season win streak to an end at four games.

With scoring leader Chris Coates on the injured list, the hosts enjoyed little finish on the night despite matching their opponents in shots on net.

Connor Sweeney and Paul Szafer were the local marksmen while assists went to Lee Frittenburg, Julian Ricci, Daryl Tieleman and Mike Winiarz.

Two powerplay goals against were the difference in this one.

The 'Hawks will look to get back in the win column tomorrow night at home against Georgetown. Game time is 8 p.m. Milton closes out its two-game home-stand against Brampton Monday at 9:15 p.m.

Atoms topple Raiders

Milton's AA major atoms proved absolutely stifling at home against Georgetown Saturday.

The Wallace Pontiac Buick Winterhawks allowed the visitors a mere seven shots on the way to downing them 3-1. Georgetown's credible netminding was the only thing keeping this game close, as scoring chances favoured the hosts more than four-to-one.

Mark Thomson potted the game winner in the third period while an empty-net insurance marker was provided by Brayden Abraham — who also scored goal number one, with help from Kyle Johnson.

Exceptional defense was offered by Matt Fratarcangeli and Matt Jessop.

Close, but no cigar

Milton's AA major novices had victory snatched out from under them with under half-a-minute remaining against Guelph Sunday.

The Collins Sunoco Winterhawks nursed a 1-0 lead for most of the afternoon clash before having to settle for the tie. Jeff Clarke made the lone deposit, with assists going to Brandon Haggart and Ricardo Raduka.

In net for the draw, turning back nine shots along the way, was Trevor Rae-Hunt. One day earlier against Stoney Creek, Milton was doubled up 4-2.

Spencer Abraham made some key saves to keep things close, while goals came from by Haggart and Gary Klutt — his first of the year.
