

Dignitaries to cook up storm in charity event

Can men really cook?

AVAYA Communication presents Real Men Can Cook, a charity fundraiser.

The event will take place November 10 at the Halton Regional Centre, 1151 Bronte Rd., in Oakville from 6 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Mark Dailey of City TV will be the evening's emcee.

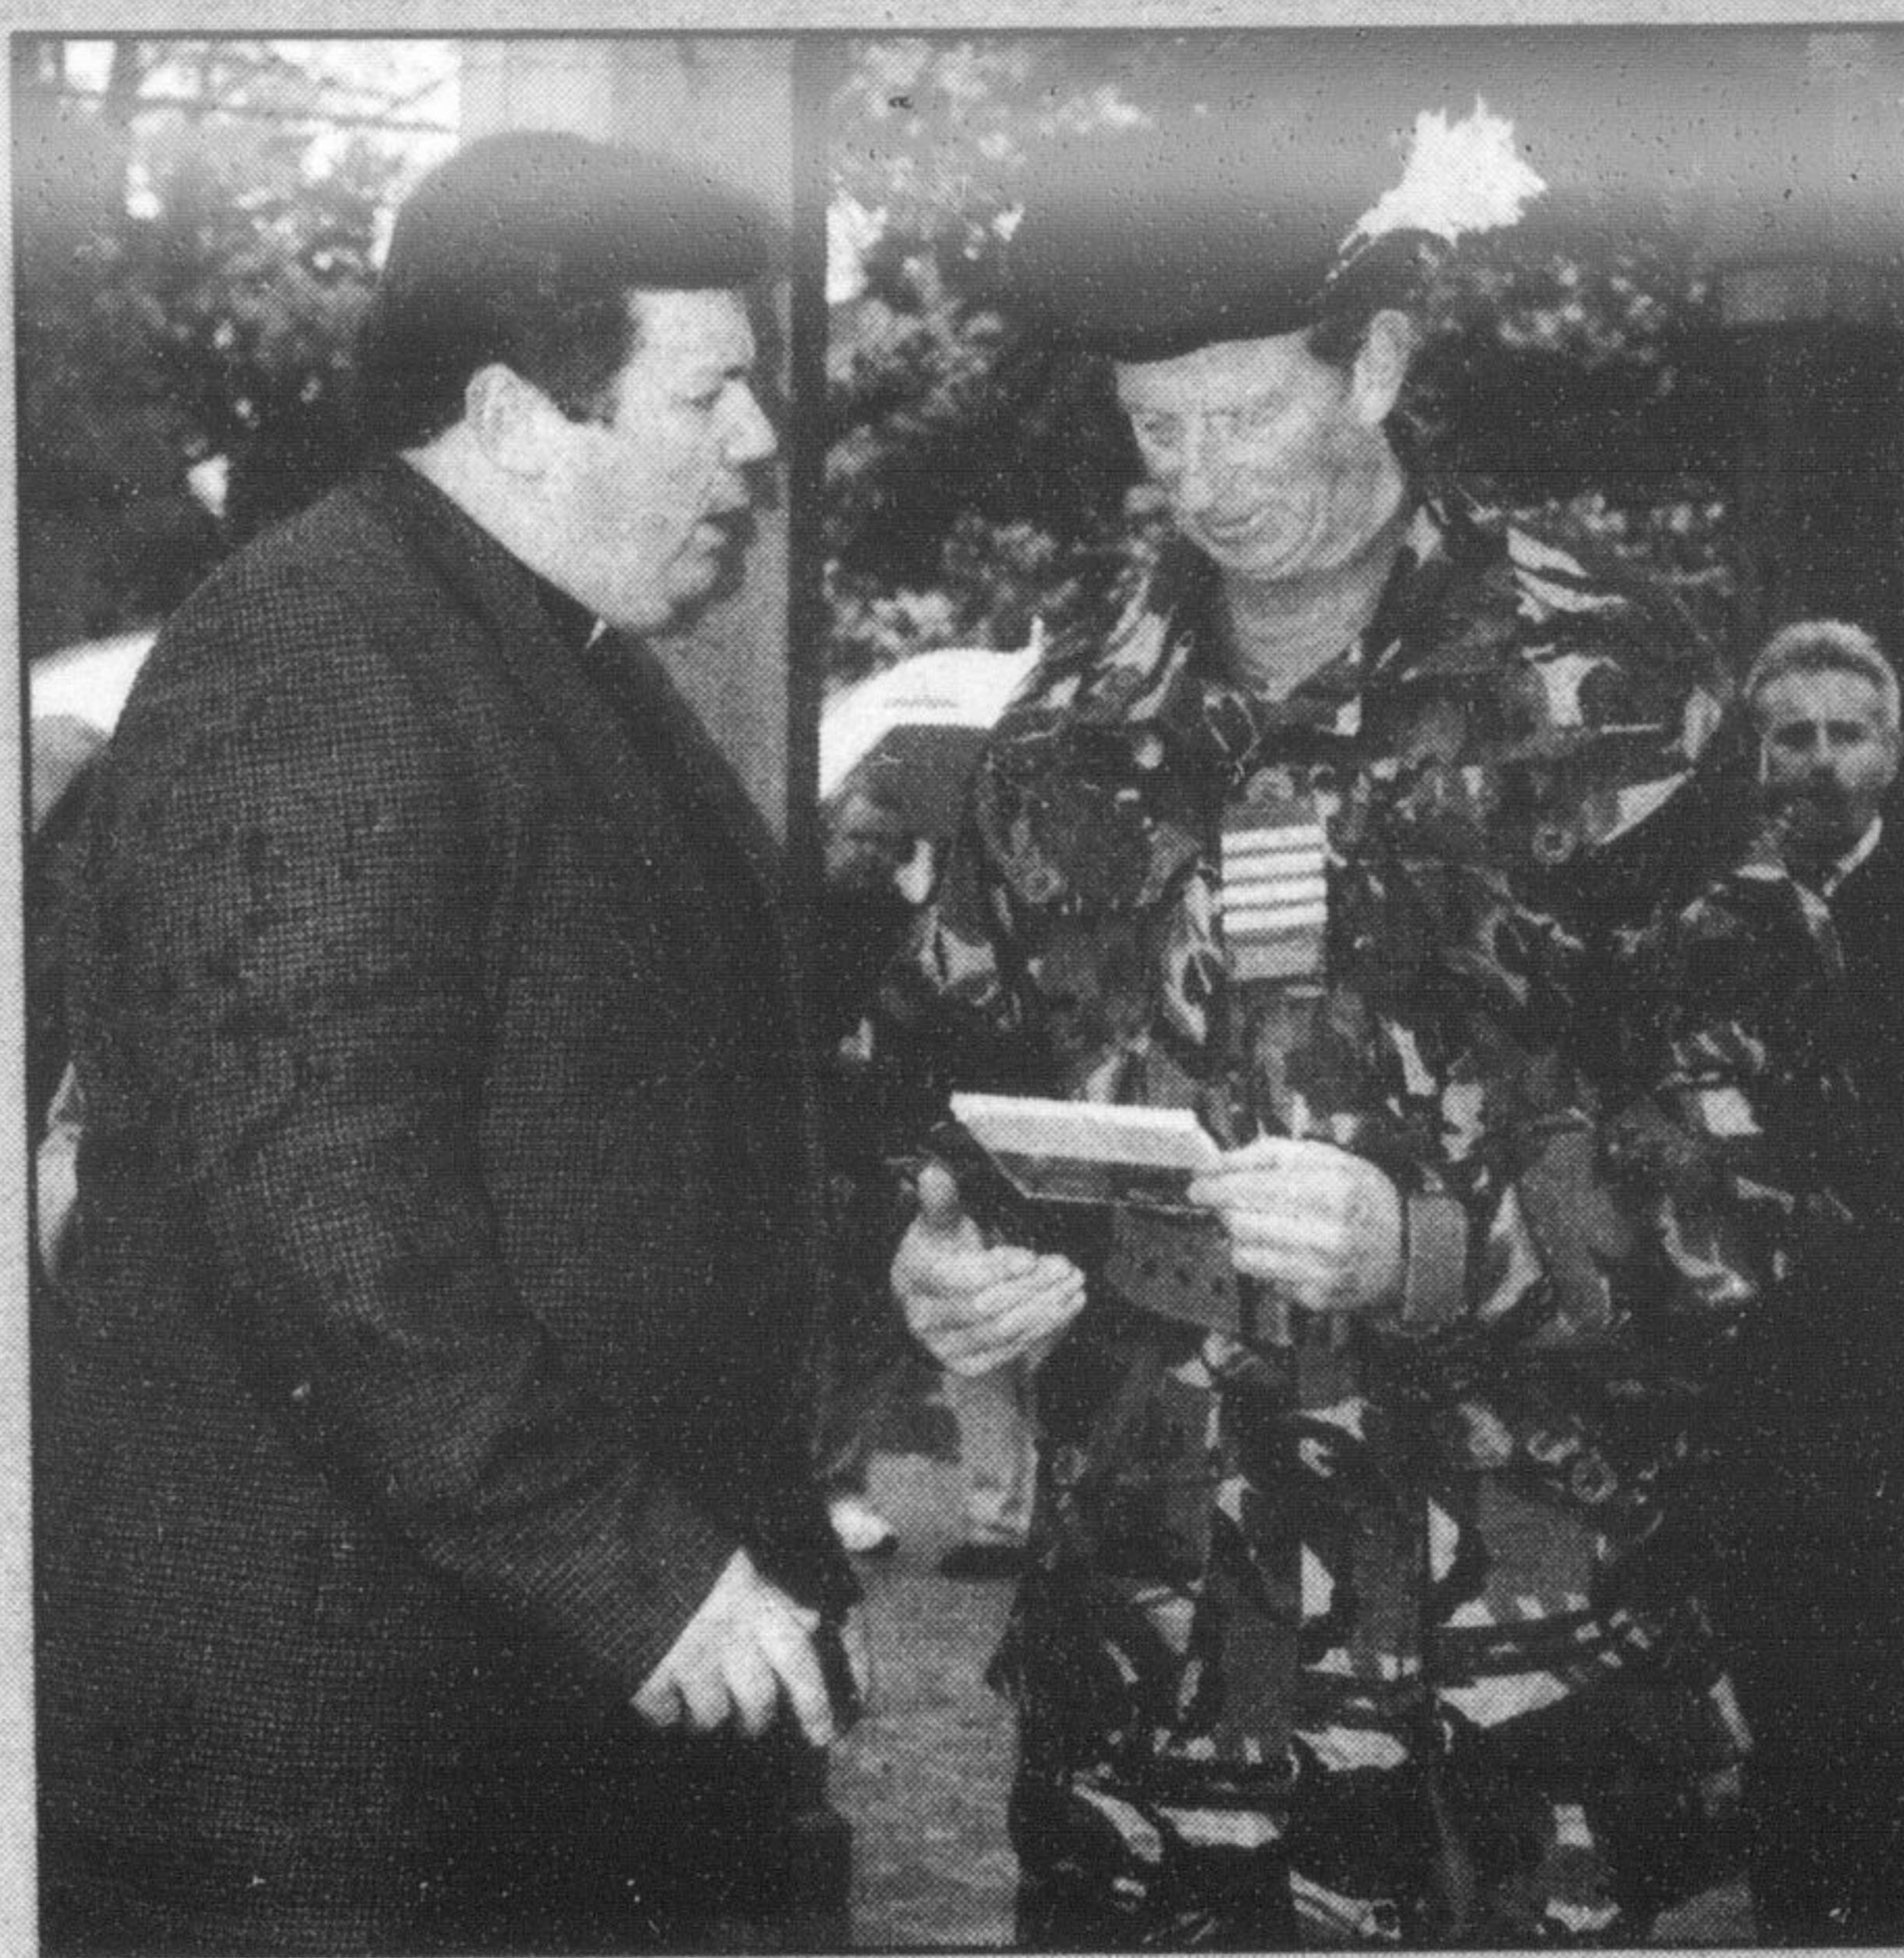

The event will showcase men who will display their culinary talents. The food they prepare (appetizers, soups, entrees or desserts) will be sampled by a panel of women judges and will award prizes to the winners.

The cooks will include Halton Region Police Chief Ean Algar, Regional Councillor John Day and officers from the RCMP.

Entertainment will be provided during the food sampling, followed by a dance.

Funds raised will go to the Children's Wish Foundation, DARE (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) and the Halton Women Survivors Advisory Group.

Tickets cost $30 (includes 10 food sampling tickets). To reserve tickets or for more information, call Elizabeth at (905) 465-3401.

Duke of Kent gets gift of music

Father Mark Curtis (left), known as 'Canada's 'Singing Priest', presented His Royal Highness Prince Edward, the Duke of Kent, with his latest CD, 'The Call', during the Ceremony of Remembrance at Remembrance Park in Georgetown recently. Father Curtis sang both God Save the Queen and the Canadian national anthem to the crowd of more than 500 people who came out to welcome the Royal visitor. The spiritual entertainer also presented copies of his CD to the Duke for the Queen and Duke of Edinburgh.
