

Major gala fundraising event for Rose Cherry's Home is planned in Toronto

It pays to give.

Proceeds from a gala fundraising event in Toronto November 8 will support Milton's Rose Cherry's Home.

Seasons of Comfort and Joy, one of Toronto's premier annual fundraising events, will be held at Liberty Grand, Exhibition Place.

The black tie evening will be hosted by former NHL coach and well-known Hockey Night in Canada personality Don Cherry.

A cocktail reception and silent auction will begin at 6 p.m., followed by welcoming remarks and a gourmet dinner. Dessert will be served at 8 p.m. and a live auction will be held from 8 to 10:30 p.m.

Guests will have the opportunity to bid on holiday stockings designed by some of the top members of the Association of Registered Interior Designers of Ontario.

Name after Mr. Cherry's late former wife, Rose Cherry's Home is set on 77 acres of woodlands near the Niagara Escarpment. It's being reconstructed to provide pediatric hospice care and respite services to Ontario families who have a child with a life-limiting or life-threatening illness requiring complex and technology dependent care.

The home provides a safe, caring and medically-advanced environment for children so parents can find time to rest and tend to other family needs.

Members of the Rose Cherry's Home board of directors include Miltonian Dr. Sheila Kemp, who works at the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto.

Tickets for the fundraiser cost $250 and can be purchased by calling (416) 360-0999.

Win brunch with author

Children visiting Milton Public Library have a chance to win brunch with Canadian children's author Gordon Korman.

With the advanced purchase of a ticket to 'I Love to Read', Milton's book festival for children, kids will be automatically entered into a draw for a November 4 brunch at T.J.'s Lager House and Grill.

Tickets to Sunday's festival at Milton District High School cost $2 each and can be purchased at the Milton Public Library and Milton Community Resource Centre. Tickets can also be purchased at the door.

Mr. Korman is the author of the 'Bruno and Boots' and 'Island' series of children's books.

For more information, call (905) 875-4636.

Special sale at St. Paul's

A special event at St. Paul's United Church Saturday morning will feature the merchandise of 'Ten Thousand Villages'.

The event — titled 'The Fair in Angel Square' — will see the sale of hand-made items such as cushions, figurines, bowls and baskets produced for non-profit organization 'Ten Thousand Villages' by residents of 35 countries.

Proceeds of the sale will go to the Mennonite Central Committee.

INVITATION TO WORKSHOP

Official Plan Program Environment Workshop

The Town of Halton Hills is undertaking an Official Plan Review. An important aspect of the Review is to obtain input from the community to help guide the future direction of the Town. Through Steering Committee meetings we have identified three major areas of interest: Growth Management, Environment, and Economic Development. You are invited to contribute your views at the Environment workshop. The workshop will be held on:

Tuesday, November 20, 2001
Cultural Centre
9 Church Street, Georgetown
6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

- 6-7:00 p.m. Welcome, Introductions, and Presentation
- 7-8:00 p.m. Small discussion groups
- 8-9:00 p.m. Action planning (Environment) and concluding remarks

We value your input and hope that you can join us. We ask that you register ahead of time, due to limited capacity. Please contact Jason Innis at 905-873-2601 ext. 2256 or by email at jasoni@town.halton-hills.on.ca to confirm your attendance.

Last day for registration is Wednesday, November 14, 2001 by 4:00 p.m.
