Police seek equipment vandals

Halton Regional Police in Milton are investigating a property damage incident on Chisholm Drive.

The incident occurred sometime between August 13 and 14.

The 4 Seasons Excavating company was doing road construction at the end of Chisholm Drive. A 220 Kobelco (heavy machine) was parked at the location.

Upon the owner of the Kobelco's return to work, he experienced great difficulty trying to start the excavator.

The owner brought the equipment in for repair and was told someone had poured sand into the gas tank.

Damage is estimated at $10,000.

If you have any information on this crime or any other crime, contact Crime Stoppers at (905) 825-4747.

No vandalism reported

It could have been called Angel's Night. Halton Regional Police in Milton didn't receive any calls about suspicious behaviour or vandalism Tuesday night, also known as Devil's Night (the night before Halloween).

"I've gone through all the reports and there was nothing," said Det. Sgt. Don Cousens. "There was an egg throwing incident in Acton but nothing in Milton. Sometimes we will get the odd report, but we had nothing."

Living Healthy with Diabetes Fair

The Milton District Hospital and the Halton Diabetes Program invite individuals with diabetes and their families drop in at a "Living Healthy with Diabetes" Fair on Saturday, November 3 anytime between 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. This first time event is being held at Upstairs at Loblaws.

Diabetes requires making significant, long-term lifestyle changes including healthy eating and getting regular aerobic exercise to help regulate blood sugar, reduce risk of heart disease, and maintain a healthy weight. Vision and foot care are also important.

Individuals attending this fair will obtain information on diabetes management through healthy eating and active living. A variety of community health services will be on hand to answer questions and to provide information on available products and services. Representatives from pharmaceutical companies will answer your questions about blood sugar testing devices. Obtain smart shopping tips and healthy cooking advice by attending the supermarket tour and cooking demonstrations. The tours start at 11:00 and 11:30 a.m. and must be booked in advance by calling 905-876-7045. The cooking demonstrations will be at 10:15 a.m. and 12:15 p.m. No advance booking is required.

This free health education event will be held on Saturday, November 3 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at Upstairs at Loblaws, Loblaws Milton Market, located at 75 Nipissing Road, Milton (just behind Milton Mall). An elevator is located just inside the main door.

If you are unable to attend this event, but would like more information about diabetes, speak to your physician and call the Halton Diabetes Program at 905-878-2383 (7410) or the Canadian Diabetes Association at 905-338-0214 (ext. 224)
