

Hit-and-run case delayed; defence awaits disclosure

A Brampton man charged in a hit-and-run accident that killed a cyclist on Tremaine Road will return to court November 29 after making a brief appearance Thursday.

Paul Carroll, 29, charged with dangerous driving causing death and failing to remain at the scene of an accident, appeared in Ontario court (provincial division) in Milton to set a trial date.

But because the defence hadn't received full disclosure from the Crown, setting a trial date was postponed for four weeks.

Mr. Carroll was arrested in August after Etobicoke cyclist

Jacek Wierzbicki was struck by a car travelling southbound on Tremaine Road, just north of Derry Road.

The victim was pronounced dead at the scene.

Mr. Carroll was released on $75,000 bail following a hearing in August.

Motorist expected to make full recovery after accident

The identity of the motorist injured in a single-vehicle accident October 25 on Tremaine Road has been released.

Tony Sandhu, 34, of Peru Road, was driving a cube van on Tremaine Road when he missed a bend in the road north of Britannia Road and slid into ditch, striking a tree, Halton Regional Police said.

Rescue workers laboured for more than an hour trying to free the driver, the sole occupant of the vehicle.

Mr. Sandhu was rushed to Hamilton General Hospital where he remained in the intensive care unit at press time. Although he suffered internal injuries and a broken leg, he's expected to make a full recovery.

Police say inclement weather was a contributing factor in the crash.
