

Fifth Line couple in court: drug charges

A Fifth Line couple facing drug charges will return to court December 6 after making a brief appearance Thursday.

Theodore Luscombe, 45, and Brenda Luscombe, 39, charged with one count each of producing a controlled substance, possession of a controlled substance and possession of a controlled substance for the purpose of trafficking, appeared in Ontario court (provincial division) in Milton to set a trial date.

But because the couple hadn't yet received Legal Aid, setting a trial date was postponed until next month.

Mr. and Ms Luscombe were arrested September 25 after Halton Regional Police seized 146 marijuana plants as well as hydroponics growing equipment from a Fifth Line residence.

A hydroponics growing operation was discovered inside a barn adjacent to the home, while marijuana was also found in the basement as well as growing on the grounds outside.

The plants seized had a potential street value of $110,000.

Fundraising photo book could use some sponsors

Conservation Halton Foundation members are looking for sponsors to underwrite the cost of reprinting Canadian photography book, 'Halton: Rising, Wild and Beckoning'.

The book was first printed in 1998. More than 12,000 books are currently in print with sales supporting the renovation and expansion of the Visitors Centre at Mountsberg Conservation Area, located near Campbellville.

Corporate sponsors will have their names and company logos printed in the book and on the donor wall at Mountsberg. They will also receive a supply of books for corporate use.

Sponsors will also be acknowledged in Conservation Halton's tabloid newspaper, which distributes 75,000 copies.

The book is a guide to the Halton watershed with features such as the world-renowned Niagara Escarpment, Carolinian forests, Lake Ontario shoreline, creeks, valleys and rich wetlands.

The hard cover book has 160 photographs and dozens of trail maps showing the natural landscapes that interface with Milton, Burlington, Oakville, Halton Hills, Flamborough and other communities in the watershed.

The cost of the book is $39.95 and is available at book stores throughout the region.

For more information regarding sponsorship opportunities or the book itself, call (905) 336-1158, ext. 233.
