

Parking lots closed due to construction

Parking facilities in downtown Milton will be closed in phases so construction crews can upgrade their condition.

The first phase saw the Mill Street parking lot closed to traffic yesterday. It will remain closed until next Friday.

Alternative parking can be found at the Mary Street parking lot, CIBC Bank Machine parking lot on Main Street at Brown Street, and Town Hall parking lot on Mary Street.

Phase two involves the reconstruction of the Mary Street parking lot. The lot will be closed between November 15 and 22.

During this time, parking will be available at the Mill Street parking lot and others listed above. Construction dates may be changed depending on weather conditions.

Long-time local furniture store owner dies at 67

Milton has lost a long-time local businessman.

Roy Fabian, owner of Fabian Furniture on Commercial Street, died October 24 from lung cancer. He was 67.

"He came here from Oakville in 1961 and opened his shop a year later," said Christine Fabian-Zehr, one of Mr. Fabian's three children who will take over the business.

"He was very old-school. His customers would come in and say they would give him $200 and a bottle of wine for a piece of furniture. That's the way he did business."

Sticking to his old-school ways, Mr. Fabian didn't believe in advertising — word of mouth was all he needed.

"He was well respected in the business community," Ms Fabian-Zehr said. "He was strong willed and committed to his business. If there was a battle to fight for, he fought. He was always thinking about his business, how he could improve things."

And although Dad may not have liked it, Fabian Furniture is getting a face lift.

"We're clearing out a lot of our furniture," she said. "We're going to start painting and we're re-doing the floor and the sign needs improvement. We'll be renovating until January."

A funeral service was held October 27 at Holy Rosary Church.
