FIELD AUDITORS

The Ministry of Finance, regional tax office, retail sales tax section, seeks two professionals to conduct field audits of small taxpayers/vendors to ascertain and maximize compliance with the Retail Sales Tax, Race Track Tax Act, other provincial tax acts. You will: prepare audit plans; determine audit approach to be taken with small-vendor audits; determine extent of tests to be conducted to ascertain level of compliance; conduct/document in-depth audits; present audit findings to taxpayers/their representatives. Location: Mississauga, with overnight travel.

Qualifications: demonstrated experience in/knowledge of accounting, auditing principles, audit systems; successful completion of levels 1, 2 and 3 courses of the CGA program, or successful completion of nine courses from the CMA pre-professional program, including three accounting courses, or successful completion of 10 courses of a recognized university/community college program, plus/including courses in introductory/intermediate financial accounting and auditing; knowledge of computer technology; experience applying legislation, e.g. Retail Sales Tax Act; good financial, analytical, verification, evaluation, interpersonal and communication skills. Note: Proof of designation/academic qualifications must be attached to your resume in order to be considered. Applicants must clearly indicate on their transcripts which of their courses meet the position's academic requirements. Applicants who obtained their qualifications outside of Canada must also submit proof that these qualifications have been recognized as equivalencies in Canada.

Salary range: $838 - $966 per week

Resume and covering letter must be received by Nov. 26, 2001. Quoting file 2076, send to: Ministry of Finance, Human Resources Branch, 33 King St. W., 2nd Fl., Oshawa, ON L1H 8H5. Fax: 905-433-6588.
