Smoke-free bylaw for town is pushed back

By RICHARD VIVIAN
The Champion

The timeline for making public places 100 per cent smoke-free has been pushed back to May 31, 2002.

Milton council made the decision Monday night after a staff report suggested there wasn't enough time to develop a bylaw for the original date of January 1, 2002.

"I'm happy to finally see some movement on this issue," Councillor Rick Malboeuf told council. "But I am concerned about the structure of this (Stakeholders Smoking Bylaw Review) Committee."

The committee — also approved by council on Monday — will meet to hear from the public and work to establish and implement a new smoking bylaw.

The committee consists of representatives from the Halton Region Health Department, the Milton Chamber of Commerce, the Community Services Advisory Committee, a restaurant owner, a bar owner, the Fifth Wheel Truck Stop, the owner of Bingo Country, Mohawk Slots, Woodbine Entertainment Group, the Royal Canadian Legion, Town staff and Mr. Malboeuf.

"Seven of the participants could be perceived to have a negative interest in this bylaw," Mr. Malboeuf continued. "We have these business interests, but we have nobody from the hospital or the Cancer Society or any other group that might be interested in a more stringent no-smoking bylaw."

The purpose of the committee is to hear from local people about the issues, stressed Councillor Ron Furik. "This is a Stakeholders Smoking Bylaw Committee, so I don't necessarily think that we need to listen to the hospital. In talking to three or four of these businesses, all they're asking for is an • see BYLAW on page 31
