Spartans steal show

E.C. Drury basketball players Josh Yeager (left) and Dwayne Williams were both named MVPs in last Friday's 25th annual Halton Classic — taking the honour in junior and senior play respectively. Each hit double digits for their Volpe Division squads, which were each topped by the Richardson all-stars. Meanwhile, Bishop Reding's Joey MacSween and Milton District's Tyler Holman competed in the junior game while doing likewise among seniors were BR's Allen Lourenco and MD's Mark Grimwood.
