or very poor.

"If you're looking at this terminology, you're basically assuming as long as it's good, very good or moderate, it's not a problem, there is not an issue. That is wrong. Most of the health effects that are occurring are occurring at these levels," Dr. Nosal explained.

"They (MOE) have to start changing the words to low risk, medium risk or high risk."

Air quality ratings are based on ozone, particulates, sulphates, nitrogen dioxide, sulphur dioxide and carbon monoxide levels.

The focus of the index also needs to be shifted from local factory emissions to the overall pollutant concentrations in the air, the medical officer continued.

"The bottom line is that it isn't what's coming out of the stack, it's what's in the air that all of us are breathing that's important. You can have a situation where everyone's emissions are below standards and you've got terrible air because of the concentration of it."

Roughly half of Halton's air pollution comes from the United States, 30 per cent from vehicle emissions, seven per cent from industry and the remaining pollutants from households.

Federal and provincial involvement is needed to appropriately address emission issues, the committee agreed.

If the committee's call for improvements to the air quality index is endorsed by regional council Wednesday, Dr. Nosal will forward the request to Minister of the Environment Elizabeth Witmer.

QUESTIONS THAT GOD WILL NOT ASK?

Did you know God asks questions?

For instance, in the Old Testament, he asked Adam and Eve in the garden, "Where are you?" (Genesis 3:9).

In the New Testament, Jesus asked His disciples many questions, such as, "Who do people say that I am?" (Matthew 16:13).

But there are many questions that God will never ask!

God won't ask what kind of car you drove, but He will ask how many people you drove who needed help.

God won't ask how big your house was, but He will ask how many people you welcomed into your home.

God won't ask about the clothes in your closet, but He will ask how many you helped clothe.

God won't ask how many material possessions you had, but He will ask if they dictated your life.

God won't ask what your highest salary was, but He will ask if you compromised your character to obtain it.

God won't ask how many promotions you received, but He will ask how you promoted others.

God won't ask what your job title was, but He will ask if you performed your job to the best of your ability.

God won't ask how many friends you had, but He will ask how many people to whom you were a friend.

God won't ask what you did to protect your rights, but He will ask what you did to protect the rights of others.

God won't ask in what neighbourhood you lived, but He will ask how you treated your neighbours.

How will you answer?

Along life's highway, valuable lessons may be learned that can help us. Lessons like:

- Making a "living" is not the same as making a "life."
- Having a pain does not mean that you have to be one.
- I still have a lot to learn.

People will soon forget what I said... people will forget what I did... but people will never forget how I made them feel.

Learn how to build people! Find a church to call home - the local church directory below should help you. Be faithful in your attendance and you'll be surprised at the many positive changes that will result in your life as you grow in love!
