We are very pleased and keep up the training.

First Garden Festival at Mountsberg tomorrow

Lots to learn and see at inaugural event

With the change of weather, people are heading out to survey the damage their gardens endured during the winter months.

To help transform the bare flower beds, Mountsberg Wildlife Centre will hold its first-ever Garden Festival tomorrow.

From 10:30 to 11:30 a.m., representatives from Wild Things Plant Farm will speak about growing and maintaining wildflowers in a garden. Greg Kemp will speak on low maintenance water gardening and pond installation from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Visitors will have the chance to learn about hostas and ornamental gardens with Jack Kent from the Potting Shed from 1 to 2 p.m.

Visitors will also learn how to successfully grow healthy irises from 2 to 3 p.m. with representatives from McMillen Iris Garden.

Lynn Short of Mountsberg will be on hand all day in Jessie's Garden to answer questions about herbs and herb gardens.

The Live Birds of Prey demonstrations will also run throughout the day.

For more information, call (905) 854-2276.

With more than a dozen program choices and camp sites in the Greater Toronto Area, there's a camp that is right for your child.
