

Teacher assigned to duties at home

District School Board, said the teacher has been assigned to paid home duties until the matter is resolved.

She wouldn't comment on how long Mr. Zarate — who's head of the computer department at the high school and teaches grades 11 and 12 — has been employed by the board.

Ontario College of Teachers records show the accused obtained his education diploma last year.

Peel police spokesperson Const. Heather Andrews wouldn't comment on where the two met up or if they knew the true age and identity of one another prior to meeting.

But she offered some Internet safety guidelines.

"Children have to remember not to give out personal information about themselves and must never agree to meet anyone they've talked to over the Internet," she said.

Mr. Zarate appeared in Ontario Court (provincial division) in Brampton Friday and was ordered to return May 20.

Anyone with information pertaining to the case is asked to call Peel Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.
