The choir, soloists and guitarists will also provide entertainment for those in attendance. Admission prices are $5 for adults and $3 for alumni and secondary school students. Seniors and children will be admitted free of charge. Tickets are available at the door.

On Thursday, graduating students gathered to choose their Valedictorian. Congratulations to Matt Ishoy who was selected by his peers to be the representative for this year's graduating class.

It has been an amazing few weeks for Bishop Reding's Track and Field team, as many long-standing school records were broken. Last Wednesday at the Golden Horseshoe Invitational at Saltfleet High School in Stony Creek, B.R. was well represented. In the Senior Boys' High Jump, Chris Karnel claimed gold with a jump of 1.91 meters, breaking the 10-year-old school record. He also set a new school record in the Senior Boys' Shot Put with a throw of 13.90 meters. Second place performances were claimed by Mike McGill in the Midget Boys' 1500 meters, Julie Iantorno in the Midget Girls' Long Jump, Mike Cam in the Midget Boys' Shot Put and Mike Rubino in the Midget Boys' 100 meters. The Midget Boys' Sprint Relay composed of Ian Butcher, Rob Dunn, Daren Izumi and Mike Rubino claimed third place.

This past Saturday at the John Rowland Memorial Games held at Central Stadium in Etobicoke, Ian Butcher continued B.R.'s record breaking streak with an outstanding run of 50.48 seconds in the Midget Boys' 400 meters. Ian's run is the fastest of any Midget athlete in the province this year. Mike McGill also ran a personal best time of 4 minutes and 41 seconds in the Midget Boys' 1500 meters. Congratulations to all of Bishop Reding's athletes on their successful performances.

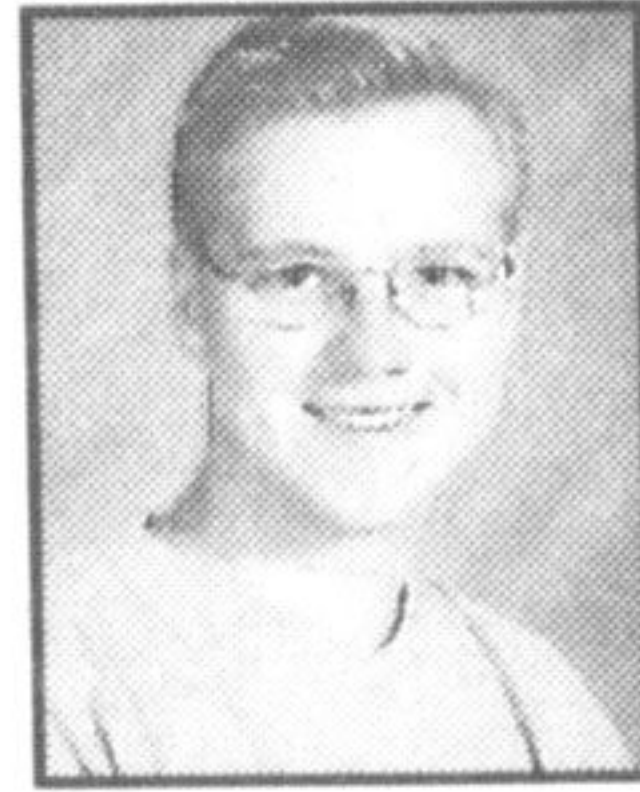

The Senior Boys' Soccer team is already perfect this season with two shutouts. Alan Lourenco was solid in net for the Royals in the 2-0 victory over Aquinas and 1-0 win versus Milton District. Paul Szafer scored a goal in each game with Chris Casa contributing one. Way to go guys.

MILTON DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

Well another week has come to an end here at MDHS. As always, the students have been very busy with all types of activities both in and out of school. Now, as always in the Messenger, you have a chance to find out what we have been doing and what is to come.

In The News

We would like to congratulate Sean Magee, Jonathan Chritink, Fraser McGaffin and Colin Mont for the excellent work that they did in raising money for Cancer research. In exchange for the $1,100 collected, the four shaved their heads. Way to go guys, we know that the money will be put to good use.

Grads, keep your eyes open for all of the fund-raisers that are happening around the school, such as the bottle drives and bake sales. Don't forget to support these ventures, as the proceeds go towards this year's prom costs.

This past week has been very busy for the science department. On Tuesday, students wrote the biology contest, while a physics contest was written on Thursday. Good luck to all those who wrote the contests.

Don't forget to buy your tickets for this year's play. That's right, tickets are now on sale for the musical Grease, being performed by MD students. You can pick up information and order forms in the office.

Sports Centre

Congratulations also go out to all of the MD cheerleaders. After achieving a first place finish over all of Ontario, they went on to the Nationals last weekend. At this competition they had a very impressive fourth place finish.

After so many games being cancelled, our boys finally got to play soccer this week. On Monday, the junior team played against Bishop Redding and were victorious with an overall score of 2-0. Congratulations goes out to the whole team, you really deserved this win.

The track & field team was out practicing this past week, on Monday and Wednesday. Any wanna be track stars are invited to come out and join the team.

On Wednesday the boys baseball team travelled to White Oaks for a game. Also, on Thursday, the golf team will be heading out for a tournament. More information and scores from these two events will be available next week.

Well, as we said before, this week was very busy. Our recommendation is to go home and have a relaxing weekend, and try not to think too much about biology or physics.

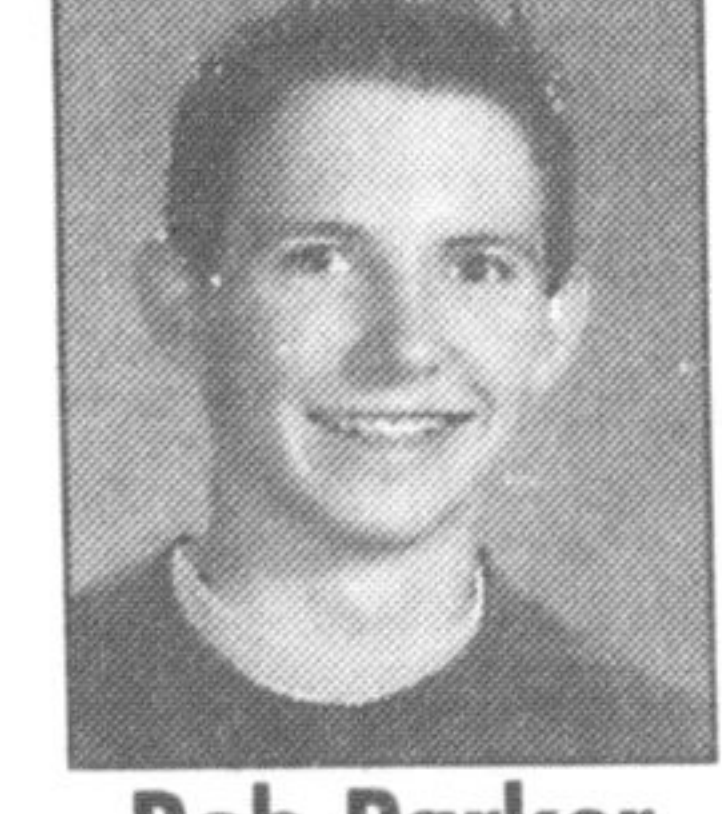

DATELINE DRURY

"And I see Lyndsay, and Megan, and Rob... And I see all of you Dateline Drury Readers..."

Are we the only people on earth who thought Romper Room was just a little bit creepy?... Maybe it's just our paranoid delusions, but someone being able to see us just by looking through a hoop of plastic is rather unsettling... Kinda like that Santa Claus guy... What's his deal? Anyways, it's time to grab the kids and hunker down on the magic carpet for yet another ASTONISHING Dateline Drury. This week, we bring you a medley of songs written by various children's artists (Not that these artists are children, but rather they write for children... And also not to say that children can't be artists... Just look at the Jackson 5...) Umm... Anyways... Enjoy the article.

"Alouetta, gentil alouetta! Alouetta gentil plumoreil!" Allo! Bright and early in zee morning on Wednesday, a petite group of...how you say...leaders left for Quebec. Zut alors, we will meece zeur faces around Drury until zey return on zee weekend. Vive la Quebec!

"Row, row, row your boat, gently down the stream..." Speaking of rowing, here's what's rowing on with the Outdoors Club this week. Today, a variety of Spartans headed out to Algonquin Park for some much needed quality time with Mother Nature and her good friend Mr. Houldcroft. Students participating ranged from grades 10 to OAC, and will undoubtedly have a wildly entertaining time in the wilderness camping. Let's hope for good weather!

"In the jungle, the mighty jungle, the survivors sleep tonight..." That's right Drury! This coming Wednesday the remaining 11 Survivor teams meet in the Tropical bay of Lockers to compete for the $200 cash reward. Only 6 teams will remain after this competition, so it will be interesting to see who will outlast and outwit their opponents. Although the details of this next competition are confidential, rumour has it that survivors can be expecting to get a little dirty.. Drury's Student Government is capable of incorporating pudding and whipped cream into every event if they haven't noticed by now.

"I've got a lovely bunch of golf balls..." Well, WE don't, but our lovely bunch of golf players sure as heck do! And they certainly got a lot of use out of them yesterday at Carlisle Golf and Country Club - our Spartans were pitted against rivals Acton this Thursday in the High School Golf Tour. Check back next week to find the results of this highly EXCITING game!

"Anybody up for a game of tetherball?" Okay, so it wasn't a song - but it was certainly something you heard quite often during recess on the playground. For those of you who are unfamiliar with it, Tetherball is essentially played by two people, smacking around a ball attached to a pole... hey... speaking of "polls" and other questionnaires, Grad Profiles were due this Wednesday and "Drury Memories" Questionnaires are due in a week! Have you decided on YOUR favourite Drury memory? We're sure it has to have been reading Dateline Drury!

"Goodbye, farewell!" We remember singing this as kids, but that was pretty much all of the lyrics that we could dredge up from our memories. sigh we're getting too old for this. Anyways, be sure to return next week for more Dateline Drury fun! Same Dateline Drury time, same Dateline Drury channel!
