Milton Welcome Wagon cleans up with awards

Welcome Wagon in Milton walked away with the Community of the Year Award (Ontario, population 15,000 to 35,000) and the Outstanding Community Hostess Award at the annual Welcome Wagon Conference in Oakville April 8.

To be eligible for the Community of the Year Award, the community must have Welcome Wagon's three basic programs in place — visits to new families in town, expectant or new parents and couples planning a wedding.

There must be excellent participation by the business community, a high ratio of families visited and good civic involvement with Welcome Wagon service.

The basket contents must be varied and include gifts from a variety of businesses and professionally printed invitation cards.

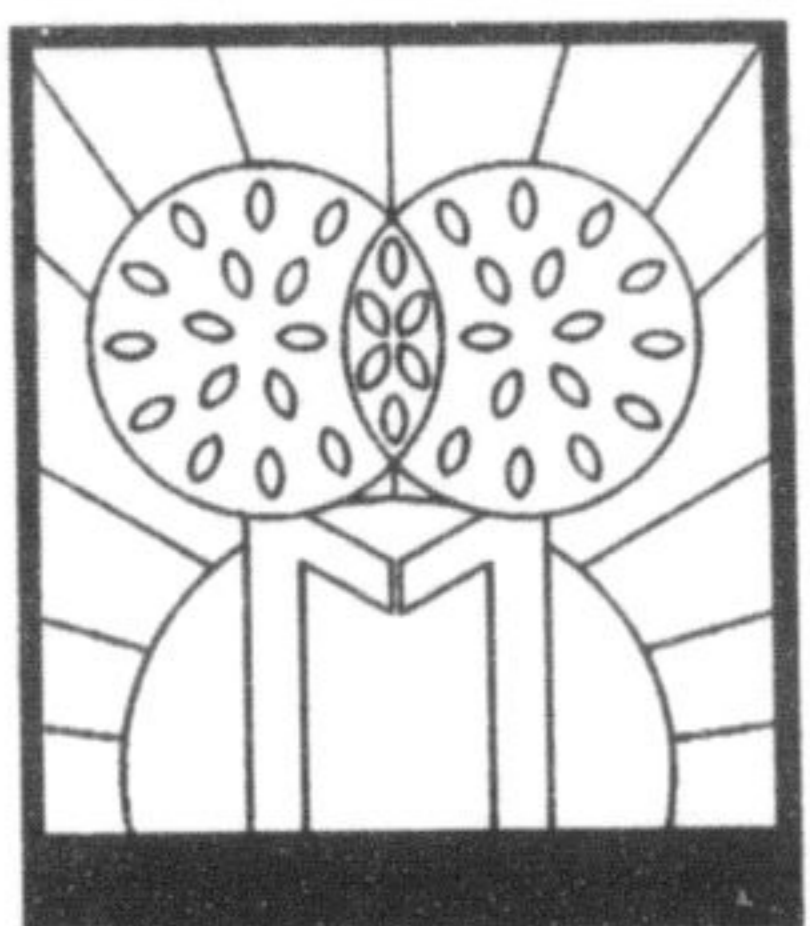

Milton's Linda MacLeod received the Laura Hagerman Award for Outstanding Community Hostess in Canada for 2001.

Ms MacLeod, who's been with Welcome Wagon for six years, was honoured for her outstanding dedication to the community, its residents and local sponsor service, her overall co-operation with all Welcome Wagon programs in the community, sales ability, enthusiasm and dedication.

She received $500 and a bracelet and $1,500 for a charity of her choice.

This is the fourth year in a row she's received the Hostess of the Year Award.
