Halton Regional Chair Joyce Savoline (left) and Halton Region Emergency Medical Services (EMS) paramedic Barbara King hold the St. Bernard mascot for EMS that was officially introduced May 2. Ms King came up with the idea for Siren. St. Bernards have always been associated with life-saving and rescue. Siren will promote safety and injury prevention programs delivered by Halton paramedics and is sure to be a big hit with the kids. Good Bears of the World Canada funded the costume for Siren, while sponsorship from the Milton Lions Club and Burlington's Grant Systems Integration allowed for the purchase of toy versions of Siren that are carried on each Halton ambulance. Paramedics use the toys to comfort children in emergencies.

Discover how uplifting a solid investment strategy can be.

In a world of fluctuating markets, finding an investment approach that will keep your portfolio soaring can be a rather daunting task.
