Former CFL star Jackson featured guest at car wash

Need a car wash? Moffat Autoworks' second annual Celebrity Car Wash will take place June 1 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Russ Jackson, CFL Hall of Fame inductee, will be on hand throughout the entire day. "Last year we raised $7,000," said Mac Moffat, owner of Moffat Autoworks, located at 761 Main St. "Everything raised will go towards McMaster Children's Hospital and Milton District Hospital for the purchase of pediatric equipment." CH TV will report on the upcoming car wash May 29, he added.

Aggressive drivers targeted by OPP

Aggressive drivers beware. The OPP is focusing on you. The annual Aggressive Driving Campaign began over the long weekend and will continue through the rest of the month. "We will focus on locations with high numbers of crashes, complaints, or congestion," OPP Traffic Sergeant Chris Whaley said in a press release. "This campaign is important because aggressive drivers don't see themselves as the problem. That's what contributes to them being aggressive. They blame everyone else." During the campaign, the OPP is keeping a sharp eye open for speeding, unsafe lane changes, improper signaling and disobeying traffic controls.

Women to hold anniversary bash

Calling all female university graduates! The Canadian Federation of University Women — Milton and District will hold its 40th anniversary June 6 at Halton Hills Place and Banquet Hall, 3090 Steeles Ave. The social hour will be from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m., followed by dinner. Former members of the club are welcome to attend the dinner. To reserve a seat, call (905) 876-2929.

Marian Courtyard full; waiting list

Milton's sole retirement community is now full. The Marian Courtyard Retirement Community, a four-storey, 50-suite building beside Holy Rosary Church on Martin Street, became officially full earlier this month. For information regarding waiting list availability, call (905) 878-1951.
