

Twiss Rd. residence broken into for $1,700 loss

Commemorative coins, a TV and VCR were stolen from a Twiss Road home last Friday.

The suspects gained entry into the home sometime between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. by smashing the basement window.

The items taken were valued at $1,700.

Cars stolen

A white 1999 Cadillac, four-door, was stolen from a King Street residence Sunday between 3 and 7:45 a.m.

The car is valued at $40,000.

The licence plate number is ALRD 603.

The following day, a red 1995 Neon, four door, was taken sometime overnight while parked on Bing Court.

Combined police unit addressing organized crime

In an effort to continue combating crime effectively, the RCMP launched a second team of investigators — including officers from Halton Regional Police — as part of the Combined Forces Special Enforcement Unit (CFSEU).

The mandate of the new CFSEU, as with the CFSEU teams in Toronto and Cornwall, is to expose, investigate, dismantle and prosecute organized crime groups.

The new CFSEU, which was launched May 30, also consists of officers from the Brantford Police Service, Hamilton Police Service, Niagara Regional Police Service, Ontario Provincial Police, Canada Customs and Revenue Agency, Citizenship and Immigration Canada, Criminal Intelligence Service Ontario and the RCMP.

"Typically, organized crime groups spin a web of interconnected criminal activity to make a profit," said RCMP Inspector Gary Francois.

"They have feelers in many communities to take advantage of any opportunity that comes their way. Establishing a Combined Forces Special Enforcement Unit to address organized crime activities gives us an integrated front-line and hands-on ability to disrupt these criminal enterprises."

Police Blotter

The car is valued at $3,000.
The licence plate number is 946 XYR.
Police don't believe the two incidents are related.

Window smashed

The window of the medical building at 69 Main St. was smashed overnight June 6. Suspects failed to gain access into the building.

Damage to the window is estimated at $600.

Dinner set taken

A dinner set valued at $500 was stolen from a unit at Carefree Mini Storage on McGeachie Drive between June 4 and 6.

Car grill stolen

The front grill of a 1996 Volkswagon Jetta was stolen overnight Saturday on Commercial Street. The grill is valued at $300.
